EASTER SUNDAY

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you about Jesus in this week's sermon?
2. Have you honestly grappled with your own mortality before?
3. Why do you think our culture is so avoidant of the reality of death?
4. In what ways does Jesus speak directly to this reality in our text?
5. If you wouldn't consider yourself to be a believer, what do you make of Jesus' statement to Martha about himself and the future for those who believe in him (John 11:25-26)?
6. If you are a believer, what stirs in your heart as you hear the words of Christ about your future in him (John 11:25-26)?

Digging Deeper: No further reading resources this week. Instead, we'd ask you to meditate over those words from Christ and let them dwell deeply and richly in your hearts (Col. 3:16). He is risen indeed and so to will all of those be raised who are joined together with him!
