DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What comes to mind when you hear this quote? "The church is the church only when it exists for others." (Bonhoeffer)*
2. Read Acts 2:47. What does this teach us about the nature and purpose of the church?
3. What does it mean that living for others is not just a thing that we do, but who we are?
4. How would you complete this sentence for yourself: "the man/woman for _____." How would others complete it for you?
5. How have you seen the joy of living for others?
6. What most often gets in the way of living for others?
7. What is one next step you could take as you seek to live deeply, on mission, for others?

*This quote is from Letters and Papers from Prison, a compilation of writings from Dietrich Bonhoeffer during his time in prison.
